

Excited States of Isolated Fermions in the Higgs phase of gauge Higgs theories

четверг, 11 ноября 2021 г. 12:30 (30)

I present numerical evidence that the gauge+Higgs fields surrounding isolated charged fermions, in a variety of gauge Higgs theories, have a spectrum of localized excited states. This would appear as a mass spectrum of "elementary" fermions, taken to be static for simplicity.

Primary author(s) : Dr MATSUYAMA, Kazue; Prof. GREENSITE , Jeff (San Francisco State University)

Presenter(s) : Dr MATSUYAMA, Kazue

Session Classification : Morning session 7

Track Classification : Progress in the Confinement Problem